

Ottawa StoryTellers Spring 2010 Beginners Workshop - Tip Toe through the Tulips and Tell a Tale or Two.

If Storytelling interests you even a little bit, then Ottawa Storytellers Spring Beginners Storytelling Workshop is what you are looking for.

This is your opportunity to blossom and share a story. When you take the Ottawa Storytellers Introduction to Storytelling three-part workshop, you are part of a small group that has an opportunity to learn how to choose and present a story. You will hear stories told by experienced Tellers, practice vocal warm ups, try out memory exercises, and discover Storytelling resources and memory aids. You will have the opportunity to practice your story and present it to an audience in a warm and supportive environment.

Storytelling is alive and well. Join us and keep it blooming!

Kathie Kompass, Anne Nagy, teachers Spring 2010

Workshop Schedule

Part 1 - Saturday,	April 24, 2010	9:30 - 4:00 pm	LAC/BAC 395 Wellington St
Part 2 - Saturday,	May 1, 2010	9:30 - 4:00 pm	LAC/BAC 395 Wellington St
Part 3 - Thursday,	May 6, 2010	7:00 -10:00 pm	LAC/BAC 395 Wellington St

The course fee is $100.00. This fee includes a resource book and a year's membership in the Ottawa StoryTellers. Please bring a bag lunch and "lug a mug" coffee, tea and juice will be provided.

For more information, e-mail Kathie Kompass at kompasshouse@rogers.com

Introduction to Storytelling Course Registration Form

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

E-mail _____

Reason that you are interested in Storytelling _____

A minimum of 6 registrations must be received by April 4th or the course will have to be postponed.

Please complete this form and mail it with a cheque for $100.00 to
The Ottawa StoryTellers
5 Beechwood Ave.
P.O. Box 74015
Ottawa, ON K1M 1M0

You will be contacted a week before the course